Connected Christmas Hamper From Digital Yacht

Christmas Gift Idea From Digital Yacht

Christmas is the perfect time to start planning boat maintenance for the spring and if you're thinking of new electronics, you'll need to get an industry standard NMEA 2000 cabling network installed.

Digital Yacht's NMEA 2000 starter kit is a bit like a mini Christmas hamper - a selection of everything you need! It includes a multi adaptor allowing up to 3 devices to be connected plus the network terminators, drop and power cables required. It's also easy to expand and ships with a useful "How To Guide" on NMEA 2000 interfacing. All leading systems from major manufacturers such as Raymarine, Simrad, B&G, Furuno and Garmin now use a standard NMEA 2000 interface and cabling system to allow easy compatibility and expansion.

What's more there's 20% off for readers (just £62.40). You can order online at www.digitalyacht.co.uk and use voucher code XMAS200 to apply the discount. Happy Christmas!
